

Unit 1: REVIEW-B

KNOW YOUR COMPUTER

What's my score?

Directions:

1. Write TRUE if the sentence is correct and FALSE if the sentence is incorrect.

SCORE

- _____ 1. Slide Rule was a set of rotating discs invented in 1621 by William Oughtred.
- _____ 2. Pascaline was the first automatic mechanical calculator invented in 1642 by the French mathematician and philosopher, Blaise Pascal.
- _____ 3. Gottfried Wilhelm Von Leibniz made possible for the calculator to divide and multiply as easily as it could add numbers.
- _____ 4. JACQUARD'S LOOM was not a computing machine but rather a weaving machine.
- _____ 5. The Difference Engine is an automatic mechanical calculator and was invented in 1822 by Charles Babbage.
- _____ 6. John Napier invented the Napier's bones in 1617.
- _____ 7. ABACUS was made of round beads that were slide back and forth on rods or sticks to perform addition and subtraction.

2. Check the boxes that are considered as a system.

- |  |                                       |   |
|--|---------------------------------------|---|
| <input type="checkbox"/> water dispenser | <input type="checkbox"/> chair        | <input type="checkbox"/> AVR            |
| <input type="checkbox"/> cell phone      | <input type="checkbox"/> blackboard   | <input type="checkbox"/> human body     |
| <input type="checkbox"/> mouse           | <input type="checkbox"/> computer set | <input type="checkbox"/> bicycle        |
| <input type="checkbox"/> cup             | <input type="checkbox"/> car          | <input type="checkbox"/> airconditioner |
| <input type="checkbox"/> pencil          | <input type="checkbox"/> printer      | <input type="checkbox"/> bag            |
| <input type="checkbox"/> paper clip      | <input type="checkbox"/> table        | <input type="checkbox"/> keyboard       |