

Lesson 38

FONT TALKS Changing Font Type

Aside from changing the font size of your document's text, you can

FOR WINDOWS 7 USERS:

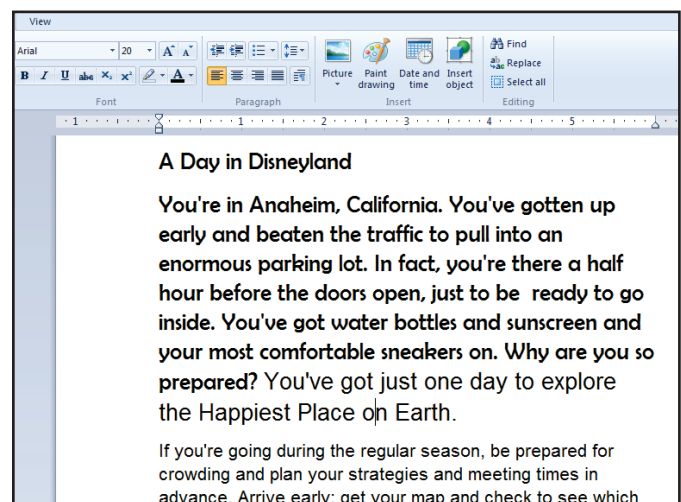

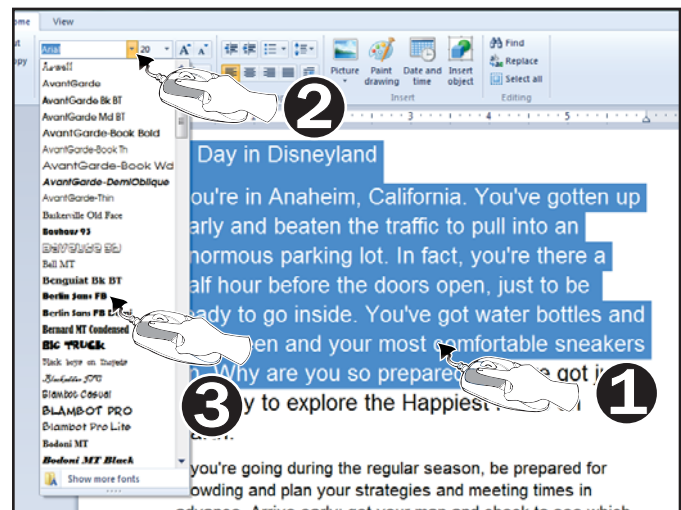

Changing Font Type

1. Select the text that you want to change.
2. Move the mouse  over  in the Font type box and then press the left button.
3. Move the mouse  over the font type that you want to use (example: Arial) and then press the left button.

The text that you have selected changes to the new font type.

Note:

To deselect text, move the mouse  outside the selected area and then press the left button.

FOR WINDOWS 8 USERS:

1. Select the text that you want to change.
2. Move the mouse  over  in the Font type box and then press the left button.
3. Move the mouse  over the font type that you want to use (example: Arial) and then press the left button.

The text that you have selected changes to the new font type.

Note :

To deselect text, move the mouse  outside the selected area and then press the left button.

