

Lesson 2

Now MaxShowing Launching MaxShow

As normally required in any application software, you must launch the software program first before you can work on it further. The same holds true for MaxShow.

Launching MaxShow

1. Click the Start button.
2. Point to All Programs.
3. Click on Scholastic Keys 2007.
4. Select MaxShow.

The MaxShow window will then appear.
