

In school, computers are usually found in the computer laboratory, a place where your teacher guides you every step of the way in learning how to use the computer.

Activity 11 Color the computer laboratory and everything inside it. Use the colors violet, black and brown.