C. MATCHING. Match the term/name with its definition, description, acronym and

_____1. Facebook

_____2. ENIAC

_____3. UNIVAC

_____4. Steve Jobs

_____5. Bill Gates

_____6. Blogging and Podcasting

_____7. Lotus 1-2-3

_____8. IBM

_____9. 2007

_____10 Linus Torvalds

_____11. Amazon

_____12. Yahoo

_____13. Java

_____14. 2005

_____15. Core i7-5960X

_____16. Google Chrome 64 bit

_____

a. This year the E-commerce booms. Companies such as Amazon, Dell and many more online shopping

b. A browser that works with 64 bit Windows Operating System release on 2014

c. Intel unveiled its first eight-core desktop processor.

d. An object oriented programming language that allows user to write a program for a variety of

e. A popular search engine and portal that was founded by two students as their way to keep track of their personal interest on the internet.

f. An online business that sells books and later expands to sell products of all types and facilitates the selling and buying of new and used goods worldwide. Now they have 17,000 employees.

g. This person creates a Linux kernel, a Unix-like Operating System that releases free across the Internet for further enhancement by other

h. Half of the world's population uses cell phones in this

I. A spreadsheet program develop by Lotus Development Corporation.

j. International Business Machine

k. In 2005, this internet activity become the mainstream for distributing information via the Web.

l. Microsoft's cofounder.

m. One of the inventor and who build the first Apple computer.

n. Universal Automatic Computer

o. The first large-scale electronic, general purpose digital computer.

p. An online social network originally available only to college students and eventually opens registration to all

q. This year the popular Youtube was founded. Google acquires Youtube in November 2006

D. TIME LINE. Make a time line for the Microsoft's Operating System (Windows), specify the year and version.